

Deborah Kates and Greg Layton have been presenting cultural arts events since 1978, including since 2001 as Vice President and President of C3A (Coatesville Area Arts Alliance, inc.) a nonprofit organization they co-founded. In addition to gardening arts and food preservation arts, C3A public events have showcased visual arts, music, film, theater, and business expos-- all to promote that "Art means Business."

For more information or to book an event:

Greg Layton and Deborah Kates
610-384-2535
debc3a@verizon.net

Features:

- A greenbelt of panoramic views of Chester County's rolling hills where individuals and groups can wander, walk, bike, create, learn and communicate at their own pace and taste.

- Three different walk/bike paths—one of which is a 2.6 mile circular around the adjacent idyllic Coatesville reservoir

- Lush flower and vegetable gardens and unique outdoor sculpture on the grounds

- Next door walking and sports park with tennis court, inline skating, two soccer fields, softball field, tot play lot and picnic facilities

- Sites appropriate for Camping

- Parking for any size group

- Vendor references for area event services

- Owners have event planning experience

- Level spaces for tents with beautiful views

- Newly-opened Marriot Hotel 2 miles away

- On-site instruction on Art Relaxation, Organic Gardening, and Home Food Preservation

We welcome you to our beautiful and private 16-acre property open to any retreat or program you desire.

For more information or to book an event:

Greg Layton and Deborah Kates

610-384-2535

debc3a@verizon.net